

I oppose the loosening of broadcast ownership regulations. Not only has there been insufficient public debate, it was precisely the ownership by Fox news that allowed for the early calling of the 2000 election for Gov. Bush which through the nation and democracy into turmoil. We don't need greater consolidation we need greater diversity. Also hundreds of childrens programs have been lost since the beginning of TV station consolidation in 1999 and there's nothing on at this time I want my three kids to watch.
